

Girls' Festival

November 9th • 10am - 4pm

Palace of Fine Arts • San Francisco

Please join us as our guests at the amazing 4th annual WorldWideWomen Girls' Festival -- a day of power and possibility for thousands of girls and their families throughout the SF Bay Area. There will be over 100 activities including:

- Interactive Expo of local organizations that support girls
- All day performances by girls' dance, music and acting troops
- Our own version of Shark Tank for girl entrepreneurs
- STEAM-focused makerspace
- Workshops on topics from human trafficking and health & wellness to leadership and advocacy
- All day career mentoring
- Sports and fitness arena
- A pop-up shop of girls selling their products
- Kaiser Spoken Word Slam Competition
- And more

Complimentary tickets are limited, so we encourage you to register quickly, and we look forward to seeing you and your family and friends at the Girls' Festival!

Shuttle buses will be available from Bart and Caltrain stations. Stay tuned for transportation and parking information as we get closer to the event.
